GOSPEL

M The Gospel according to John, the 19th chapter.

Carrying his own cross, he went out to the place of the Skull (which in Aramaic is called Golgotha). Here they crucified him, and with him two others-- one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews."

Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining. This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.

"Let's not tear it," they said to one another. "Let's decide by lot who will get it."

This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled which said, "They divided my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing." So this is what the soldiers did.

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

Later, knowing that all was now completed, and so that the Scripture would be fulfilled, Jesus said, "I am thirsty." A jar of wine vinegar was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant, and lifted it to Jesus' lips. When he had received the drink, Jesus said, "It is finished." With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

PSALM 2

M The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One.

M Why do the nations conspire

C And the peoples plot in vain?

M The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together

C Against the LORD and against his Anointed One.

M “Let us break their chains,” they say,

C “And throw off their fetters.”

M The One enthroned in heaven laughs;

M Therefore, you kings, be wise;

C be warned, you rulers of the earth.

M Serve the LORD with fear

C and rejoice with trembling.

M Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and you be destroyed in your way, for his wrath can flare up in a moment.

C Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

M The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One.

*When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.
See, from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown?*

*Oh, the wonderful cross, oh, the wonderful cross
Bids me come and die and find that I can truly live.
Oh, the wonderful cross, oh, the wonderful cross
All who gather here by grace draw near and bless your name.*

*Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small.
Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.*

*Oh, the wonderful cross, oh, the wonderful cross
Bids me come and die and find that I can truly live.
Oh, the wonderful cross, oh, the wonderful cross
All who gather here by grace draw near and bless your name.*

Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all. Amen.

PSALM 27

M False witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.

The LORD is my light and my salvation— whom shall I fear?

C The LORD is the stronghold of my life— of whom shall I be afraid?

M When evil men advance against me to devour my flesh,

C When my enemies and my foes attack me, they will stumble and fall.

M Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear;

C Though war break out against me, even then will I be confident.

M One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek:

C That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.

M For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling;

C He will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.

M Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me;

C I will sacrifice with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music to the LORD.

M Hear my voice when I call, O LORD;

C Be merciful to me and answer me.

M My heart says of you, "Seek his face!"

C Your face, LORD, I will seek.

M Do not hide your face from me, do not turn your servant away in anger; you have been my helper.

C Do not reject me or forsake me, O God my Savior.

M Though my father and mother forsake me,

C The LORD will receive me.

M Teach me your way, O LORD;

C Lead me in a straight path because of my oppressors.

M Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes,

C For false witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.

M I am still confident of this:

C I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

M Wait for the LORD;

C Be strong and take heart and wait for the LORD.

M False witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.

M A reading from the Lamentations of Jeremiah the prophet:

[Good Friday – 7]

LAMENTATIONS 1:1-5

M How deserted lies the city, once so full of people!
How like a widow is she, who once was great among the nations!
She who was queen among the provinces has now become a slave.

Bitterly she weeps at night, tears are upon her cheeks.
Among all her lovers there is none to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her; they have become her enemies.

After affliction and harsh labor, Judah has gone into exile.
She dwells among the nations; she finds no resting place.
All who pursue her have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to her appointed feasts.
All her gateways are desolate, her priests groan,
Her maidens grieve, and she is in bitter anguish.

Her foes have become her masters; her enemies are at ease.
The LORD has brought her grief because of her many sins.
Her children have gone into exile, captive before the foe.

M Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return to the Lord your God!

Lamb of God, pure and ho - ly, who on the cross did suf - fer,

Ev - er pa-tient and low - ly, your-self to scorn did of - fer.

All sins you car-ried for us, else had de-spair reigned o'er us:

Have mer - cy on us, O Je - sus!

[Good Friday – 8]

M A reading from the Lamentations of Jeremiah the prophet:

LAMENTATIONS 1:6-9

M All the splendor has departed from the Daughter of Zion.
Her princes are like deer that find no pasture;
in weakness they have fled before the pursuer.

In the days of her affliction and wandering Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old.

When her people fell into enemy hands, there was no one to help her.
Her enemies looked at her and laughed at her destruction.

Jerusalem has sinned greatly and so has become unclean.
All who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness;
she herself groans and turns away.

Her filthiness clung to her skirts; she did not consider her future.
Her fall was astounding; there was none to comfort her.
“Look, O LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed.”

M Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return to the Lord your God!

Lamb of God, pure and ho - ly, who on the cross did suf - fer,

Ev - er pa-tient and low - ly, your-self to scorn did of - fer.

All sins you car-ried for us, else had de-spair reigned o'er us:

Have mer - cy on us, O Je - sus!

M A reading from the Lamentations of Jeremiah the prophet:

LAMENTATIONS 1:10-14

M The enemy laid hands on all her treasures;
she saw pagan nations enter her sanctuary—
those you had forbidden to enter your assembly.

All her people groan as they search for bread;
they barter their treasures for food to keep themselves alive.
“Look, O LORD, and consider, for I am despised.”

“Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look around and see.
Is any suffering like my suffering that was inflicted on me, that the LORD brought on me in the day of his fierce anger?”

“From on high he sent fire, sent it down into my bones.
He spread a net for my feet and turned me back.
He made me desolate, faint all the day long.

“My sins have been bound into a yoke; by his hands they were woven together.
They have come upon my neck and the Lord has sapped my strength.
He has handed me over to those I cannot withstand.”

M Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return to the Lord your God!

Lamb of God, pure and ho - ly, who on the cross did suf - fer,

Ev - er pa-tient and low - ly, your-self to scorn did of - fer.

All sins you car-ried for us, else had de-spair reigned o'er us:

Your peace be with us, O Je - sus!

C Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours

GOOD FRIDAY

[Good Friday – 12]

PSALM 51

M Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love;
according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge.
Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place.

Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice.
Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness.
O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.
You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.
The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem.
Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

The sixth candle is extinguished.

The seventh candle is removed from the nave leaving the church in darkness for silent prayer and meditation.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M Let us pray. Almighty God, graciously behold this your family for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Silence for meditation.

A loud noise (streptitus) representing the rending of Christ's tomb is heard, and the seventh candle is returned to burn in the chancel.

GOOD FRIDAY

CLOSING ANTHEM

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

*O sacred Head, now wounded, With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded With thorns, Thine only crown.
O sacred Head what glory, What bliss till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call Thee mine.*

*My Shepherd now receive me; My Guardian, own me Thine.
Great blessings Thou didst give me, O Source of gifts divine.
Thy lips have often fed me With words of truth and love;
Thy Spirit oft hath led me To heavenly joys above.*

*Here I will stand beside Thee, From Thee I will not part;
O Savior, do not chide me! When breaks Thy loving heart,
When soul and body languish In death's cold cruel grasp;
Then in Thy deepest anguish, Thee in mine arms I'll clasp.*

*Be Thou my Consolation, My Shield, when I must die;
Remind me of Thy Passion When my last hour draws nigh.
Mine eyes shall then behold Thee, Upon Thy cross shall dwell,
My heart by faith enfold Thee. Who dieth thus, dies well.*

The minister exits the chancel.

The congregation may remain in prayer and meditation before dispersing quietly.
