

God or Tyrants: A Study of 1 & 2 Kings

Lesson 02: 36/1600

Assignment for next week:

- Read 1 Kings 1:1 – 4:34

- Browse online to find your “favorite” Bible Atlas/Map website
  - Share your finding(s) with the class

  - Give reasons for your choice(s)

- Ponder the following questions (taken from the Whole Bible Project, copyright NPH):
  - Monday: [1 Kings 1] How is the episode recounted in 1 Kings 1 an example of God’s gracious mercy?

  - Tuesday: [1 Kings 2:1-12] According to David, who is a “real man”? What concept of manhood do we observe today? Is this different from David’s description?

  - Wednesday: [1 Kings 2:13-46] Why is rebellion against the government such a terrible offense? (confer Romans 13:1,2)

  - Thursday: [1 Kings 3] If the Lord came to you and let you choose one thing for him to give you, what would it be?

  - Friday: [1 Kings 4] What lessons on leadership can we learn from Solomon?

  - Saturday: [1 Kings 1:1 – 4:34] Reread the portion of Scripture assigned for this week. Maybe, just maybe, find a passage to put to memory!
