

MOSES

Introduction

The congregation and/or pastor has asked you to be involved in a door-to-door canvass with the intent of witnessing to others concerning "the faith". What a blessing, should your first reaction be, "Here am I, send me!" (Isaiah 6:8). That may not always be the case, however. Instead, your first reaction may be to list the reasons why your involvement in the canvass/witness would not be a good idea. Take heart... you're in company with Moses! Below list the various reasons people come up with to resist the invitation to engage in this kind of evangelism:

- 1.

Life Milestones

Moses' life can be divided into three convenient spans of 40 years - 40 years in Egypt, 40 years in Midian, and 40 years through the Wilderness. Both from your knowledge of Moses' life from Exodus and from Stephen's account of Moses' life in Acts 7:20-42 answer the following questions about each milestone in his life:

- What training did God give Moses?
- How did God prove faithful to his promises both "to" and "through" Moses?
- How is "grace" displayed in the life of Moses?

What are the general milestones of life and how did God "train" you for what you have faced in life?

Moses and Ten!

Moses is involved in two important items of TEN – the ten plagues and the ten commandments. First, see if you can list both items of TEN... in order!

Plagues	Commandments

Second, comment on the significance of each list in the wider scope of salvation history:

Moses, the Leader

You've been assigned the task of creating a presentation on Leadership using only the life of Moses. What points would you make for your presentation?
