

New Year's Eve

Review and Remember

December 31, 2022 – 3:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Calvary Lutheran Church and School
9807 Church Road
Dallas, TX 75238 - 214-348-5567

OPENING HYMN

The Old Year Now Has Passed Away

- 1 The old year now has passed away;
We thank you, O our God, today
That you have kept us through the year
When danger and distress were near.
- 2 We pray you, O eternal Son,
Who with the Father reigns as one,
To guard and rule your Christendom
Through all the ages yet to come.
- 3 Take not your saving Word away,
Which lights and cheers our souls each day.
Abide with us and keep us free
From error and hypocrisy.

Please stand

Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.

You have set our iniquities before you;
our secret sins in the light of your presence.

Teach us to number our days aright that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

RESPONSE

The Old Year Now Has Passed Away

- 4 Oh, help us to forsake all sin,
A new and holier life begin!
Forgive the old year's sins, and bless
The new year with true happiness,
- 5 Wherein as Christians we may live
Or die in peace that you can give,
To rise again when you will come
And enter your eternal home.
- 6 There shall we thank you and adore
With all the angels evermore.
Lord Jesus Christ, increase our faith
To praise your name through life and death.

PRAYER

Eternal Father before whom all generations rise and fall, teach us to think earnestly on the brevity of our lives and on the immensity of your goodness. Help us to enter the new year trusting in the name of your Son and walking in the way of his peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

HYMN

349 (vs. 1-3) – A Great and Mighty Wonder

1 A great and mighty wonder,
A glorious mystery:
A virgin bears an infant
Who veils his deity.

Refrain:

Repeat the hymn again:

“To God on high be glory

And peace on earth to men.”

2 The Word becomes incarnate
And yet remains on high,
And cherubim sing anthems
To shepherds from the sky.

Refrain

3 While thus they sing your monarch,
Those bright angelic bands,
Rejoice, O vales and mountains,
And oceans, clap your hands.

4 Since all he comes to ransom,
By all be he adored,
The infant born in Bethl'em,
The Savior and the Lord.

5 All idols then shall perish
And Satan's lying cease,
And Christ shall raise his scepter,
Decreeing endless peace.

496 (vs. 1-3) – Jesus! Name of Wondrous Love

1 Jesus! Name of wondrous love,
Name all other names above,
Unto which must ev'ry knee
Bow in deep humility.

2 Jesus! Name decreed of old,
To the maiden mother told -
Kneeling in her lowly cell -
By the angel Gabriel.

3 Jesus! Name of priceless worth
To the fallen here on earth
For the promise that it gave,
"Jesus shall his people save."

| 1 Help us, O Lord, for now we enter
Upon another year today.
In you our hopes and thoughts now center;
Renew our courage for the way.
New life, new strength, new happiness
We ask of you—oh, hear and bless. | 2 May ev'ry plan and undertaking
Begin this year, O Lord, with you;
When I am sleeping or am waking,
Help me, dear Lord, your will to do.
In you alone, my God, I live;
You only can my sins forgive. |

And, as the year's last hours go by,
We raise to you our earnest cry,
Once more your love entreating. | 2 Before the cross, subdued, we bow,
To you our prayers addressing,
Recounting all your mercies now
And all our sins confessing.
We ask you, Lord, this coming year
To keep us in your faith and fear
And crown us with your blessing. |

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

The Sacrament

CONFESSION OF SINS

The Exhortation

Dearly beloved: Since we intend to come to the Lord's Supper, it is proper that we examine ourselves carefully as Saint Paul encourages us, "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." (1 Corinthians 11:28). For Christ instituted this Holy Supper for the special comfort and strengthening of those who humbly confess their sins and hunger and thirst after righteousness.

But if we examine ourselves in this way, we will find nothing but sin and death in us from which we cannot free ourselves. Therefore, our Lord Jesus Christ has had mercy on us and has taken our nature upon himself. In doing this, he won our salvation by fulfilling the will and law of God for us and by suffering death and all that our sins deserved. In order that we might grow stronger in our faith through which we also serve God with lives of love, Christ has instituted this sacrament of Holy Communion, in which he feeds us with his body and gives us his blood to drink. Therefore, whoever eats of this bread and drinks of this cup, firmly believing the words of Christ, dwells in Christ and Christ in him, and has forgiveness, life and salvation.

We should also do this in remembrance of him, proclaiming his death, that he was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification. At the same time we thank him for all he has done for us, take up our cross and follow him, and, according to his command, love one another even as he loved us. For we are all one bread and one body, even as we all partake of this one bread and drink this one cup.

The Confession

I now ask you before God, who searches the heart:

1. Do you sincerely confess that you have sinned against God and deserved his wrath and punishment? Then declare so by saying: I do confess.

Truly, you should so confess, for the Holy Scriptures declare: "If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." (1 John 1:8).

2. Do you repent from the heart of all your sins committed in thought, word, and deed? Then declare so by saying: I do repent.

Truly, you should so repent, as did the penitent sinners: King David, who prayed for a contrite heart; Peter, who wept bitterly; the sinful woman; the prodigal son; and others.

3. Do you sincerely believe that God, by grace, for Jesus' sake, will forgive you all your sins? Then declare so by saying: I do believe.

Truly, you should so believe, for Scripture declares: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16).

4. Do you promise that, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, you will from this time on amend your sinful life? Then declare so by saying: I do promise.

Truly, you should so promise, for Christ, the Lord, says: "In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." (Matt. 5:16).

5. Finally, do you believe that through me, a called servant of God, you will receive the forgiveness of all your sins? Then declare so by saying: I do believe.

Truly, you should so believe, as the Scripture tells us, “I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” (Matthew 16:19).

May it be to you as you believe.

The Absolution

Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God to all of you, and in the place and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son +, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENT

Be seated

The Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

DISTRIBUTION

The Scriptures teach that the celebration of the Lord's Supper connects us intimately with Christ and with one another as Christians who are united around a common confession of faith. Therefore, we ask that only those who are members of Calvary or churches within our fellowship come forward to receive the Lord's Supper.

DISTRIBUTION HYMN

660 – Here, O My Lord, I See You Face to Face

The following hymn may be sung during distribution of the Lord's Supper

1 Here, O my Lord, I see you face to face;
2 This is the hour of ban - quet and of song;
3 I have no help but yours nor do I need
4 Mine is the sin but yours the right - eous - ness;

here would I touch and han - dle things un - seen,
this is the heav'n - ly ta - ble spread a - new.
an - oth - er arm but yours to lean up - on.
mine is the guilt but yours the cleans - ing blood.

here grasp with firm - er hand e - ter - nal grace,
Here let me feast and, feast - ing, still pro - long
It is e - nough, O Lord, e - nough in - deed;
Here is my robe, my ref - uge, and my peace:

and all my wea - ri - ness up - on you lean.
the brief bright hour of fel - low - ship with you.
my strength is in your might, your might a - lone.
your blood, your right - eous - ness, O Lord, my God.

- 5 Too soon we rise; the vessels disappear;
the feast, though not the love, is past and gone.
The bread and wine remove, but you are here,
nearer than ever, still my shield and sun.
- 6 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by,
yet, passing, points to that glad feast above,
giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,
the Lamb's great marriage feast of bliss and love.

When the distribution has finished, please stand

PRAYER

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed, give unto your servants that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey your commandments, and also that we, being defended by you from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE BLESSING

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look on you with favor and + give you peace. Amen.
